At a Glance

Pulau Tioman or Tioman Island lies about 56 km off the east coast of Peninsular Malaysia. It spans over 38 km in length and 19 km at its widest point.

The island enjoys a tropical climate, with temperatures ranging from 28°C to 30°C. The water temperature is 28°C. Visitors can expect occasional torrential showers especially from the months of November to February. However most resorts continue to operate during this season and activities may be carried out as usual.

The island has basic but adequate facilities for tourists. Pay phones can be used with Telekom phone cards. Cellular communication is available through Maxis, Celcom and TM Touch lines (depending on the area you are in). Visitors can access the Internet at cybercafes found around the island.

Government clinics are located in Mukut, Genting and Tekek and operate from 8.00 am to 5.00 pm. 24-hour medical service is available at Berjaya Tioman Beach, Golf & Spa Resort. Electricity voltage is 220 - 240 volts while A/C is at 50 cycles per second. Visitors are advised to make prior financial arrangements on the mainland. Major credit cards are accepted at selected resorts and retail outlets.

An Island Shrouded in Legends

The origin of Tioman and its people are woven in a tapestry of intriguing legends. A legend synonymous with the island is the tale of a beautiful dragon princess. On her way from China to visit her prince in Singapore, this fabled maiden stopped to seek solace in the crystal-clear waters of the South China Sea.

Enchanted by the charms of the place, she decided to discontinue her journey. The princess took the form of an island and pledged to offer shelter and comfort to passing travellers. Till today, the island bears startling resemblance to a sleeping dragon.

Blessed with a sunny, tropical climate, Tioman is the perfect spot for a host of watersports activities. Visitors can indulge in swimming, boating or simply cruise in a glass-bottomed boat to enjoy the breathtaking marine beauty. For a taste of adventure, you can contend the waves in a kayak or glide over the clear waters by windsurfing.

The warm waters and high visibility (20 to 30 metres) make Tioman a popular destination for snorkelling and diving. The calm sea has an assemblage of corals and aquatic inhabitants such as bluespotted lagoon ray, slingjaw wrasse, royal dottyback, dusky parrotfish, blue-ring angelfish, clownfish and many more.

The colonies of corals provide habitat for a variety of small marine life. Ideal for snorkellers who wish to swim alongside a symphony of fishes and enjoy the beauty of the undersea gardens.

The Marine Park Centre is also a favourite spot for snorkelling. The waters here teem with rabbitfish, wrasse, sergeant major and parrotfish.

Tioman offers many attractions for divers of all levels. Most dive operators cater to varied preferences; from introductory dives, night dives to technical diving. PADI certification courses are also conducted on the island.

The calm dive sites such as Renggis and Soyak are ideal for novices and underwater photography. Outlying sites such as Chebeh and Tiger Reef are deeper with more interesting terrain.

Dolphins have been spotted around Tioman. If you're lucky, you'll be greeted by these friendly mammals during island-hopping trips.

Tioman's fringing reefs are a riveting discovery. Gently sloping to the sea, the sites are perfect to explore hard and soft corals as well as multi-hued seafans. The submerged reefs, especially around the smaller islands abound with corals in a riot of colours. They are popular among advanced divers as the currents attract large pelagic species. Night dives can be arranged to witness the splendid display of nocturnal marine life.

Dive sites such as Chebeh and Magicienne Rock are well-known for occasional sightings of huge manta rays, whale sharks, black tip reef sharks, great barracuda and turtles. Lucky divers may even spot a Seacow or Dugong, a rare marine mammal further south of the archipelago.

The seabed around Tioman holds many secrets and mysteries. It is the final resting place for numerous

Wonderland*

Tioman has one of the last untouched dipterocarp forests in the South China Sea. The abundant sunshine and rain creates a luxuriant setting of tropical trees, sprinkled with an assortment of ferns and flowers.

The lush greenery is home to a wide range of wildlife including protected species such as mousedeer, binturong, long-tailed macaque, slow loris, black giant squirrel and brush-tailed porcupine. There are no large mammal predators on the island. The ecological galore also includes an interesting array of reptiles and amphibians such as frogs, lizards, geckos, skinks, snakes and monitor lizards. Trekking is an excellent way to enjoy the sights and

Avid climbers can take a six-hour hike to conquer Mount Kajang (1,038 metres), the highest peak on the island. For rock-climbing enthusiasts, the sites at Tekek, Mukut and Juara are ideal for scaling. Experienced climbers can embark on an adrenaline-pumping ascent over the Gunung Nenek Semukut (also known as Twin Peaks), Malaysia's highest freestanding spire. Touted as a 'Big Wall' in mountaineering terms, this 690-metre granite monolith is well-known for its challenging terrain. 'Nenek Semukut' literally means 'The Old Lady of Semukut' as its pinnacle resembles the profile of an old lady when seen from a distance.

There are several waterfalls on the island. The largest is the Asah Waterfall, where white foamy waters cascade down several feet to a rocky pool. It takes 30 minutes from Mukut and 15 minutes from Asah Village to get there. The Lubuk Tija Waterfall is located at Juara, approximately a half an hours' walk from Juara Village. The splash of water and crisp, cool air make these spots ideal for picnics.

Gunung Nenek Semukut is more than twice the height of the Eiffel Tower. So far, only a few successful climbs have been made to its peak.

Island Pastimes

Tioman was a stopover for merchants during the early days of maritime trade. Artefacts from this era can be found at the island's museum in Tekek.

The sound of the waves, shimmering emerald waters and lush greenery make Tioman a magical destination that enchants you upon first sight.

Holidaymakers can indulge in a number of pastimes such as island-hopping, bird-watching, basking in the sun or embarking on a journey to discover the rustic villages. Visitors can also catch the spectacular sunset at Salang and sunrise at Juara. There are a number of places with historical interest including mausoleums of early rulers and a fort built during the Japanese occupation. The Museum in

Island Pastimes

Tekek is a good place to unravel the bygone days of Tioman. Among the items displayed are 11th to 19th century trade ceramics, coins, maps, sea charts, prints, paintings and objects salvaged from shipwrecks.

Golf enthusiasts can tee-off at the 18-hole international-standard golf course at Berjaya Tioman Beach, Golf & Spa Resort.

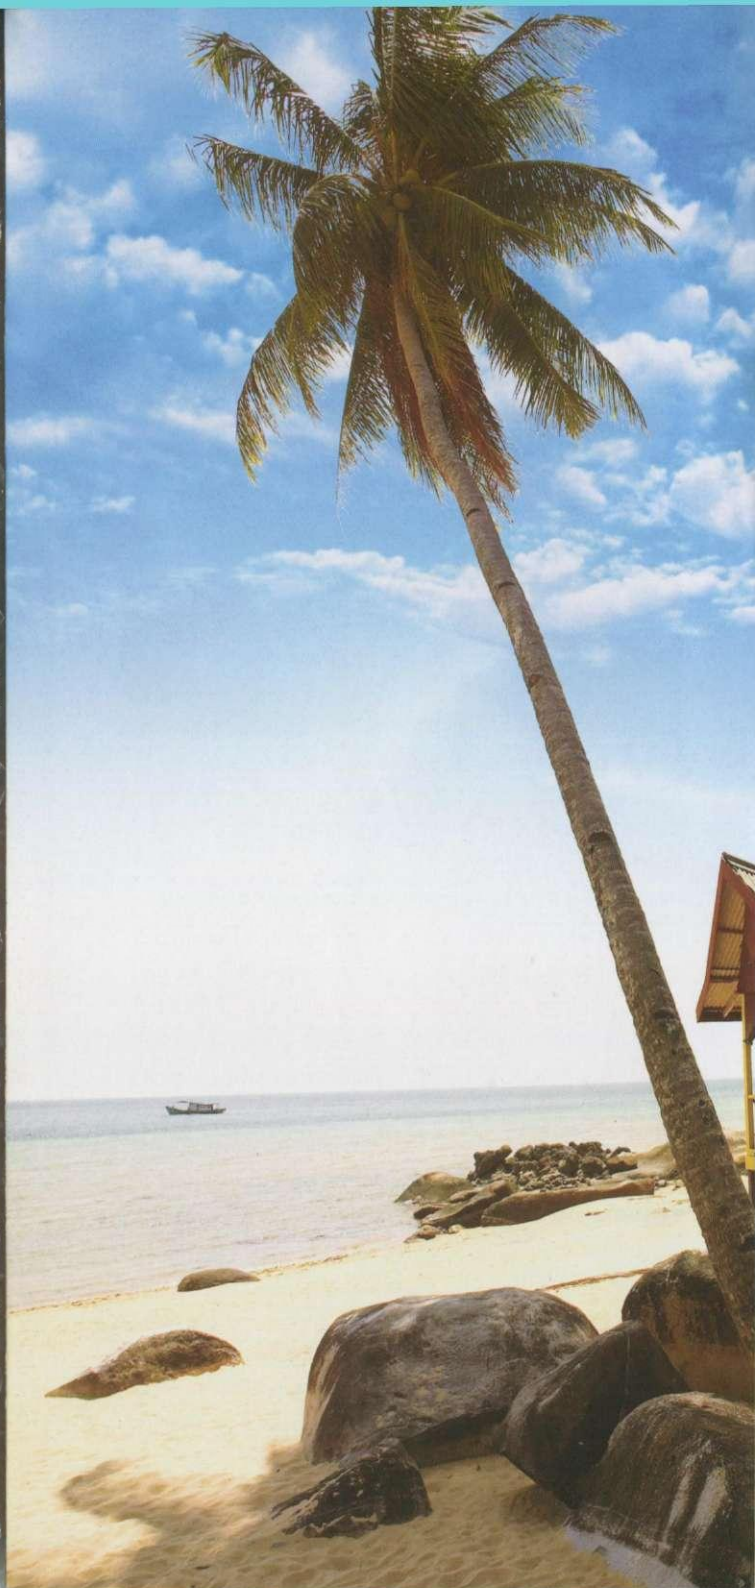

Those seeking rejuvenation will find the resort's Rimba Spa, tucked away against a backdrop of rolling hills and tropical foliage, an ideal spot to soothe away stress and fatigue.

Getting Around

Getting around Tioman is interesting as boats are the main form of transportation. There are no cars or asphalt roads on the island, except around Tekek. All villages have regular boat and sea bus services that connect to other villages. Speedboats can be chartered for trips and island-hopping activities.

For short excursions, visitors can rent bicycles or motorbikes at a reasonable rate.

Rustic Villages

From its mist-capped mountains to glistening emerald waters, Tioman exudes magic, grace and tranquility. Visitors can tour the different villages to experience and enjoy Tioman's allure.

Salang

Located on the northwest of the island, Salang boasts clear waters ideal for snorkelling and diving. It is close to Monkey Bay and Tulai Island, popularly sought for their pristine beaches and vibrant undersea gardens. From Salang, visitors can also get easy access to Layang-Layang Cave, an underwater rock formation. There are ample facilities in Salang; including numerous chalets, restaurants, dive shops and a mini market. The village also offers a modest nightlife.

Air Batang

Popularly known as ABC Village, Air Batang has a rocky, but serene beach. The village has a close-knit atmosphere with a walkway connecting the many resorts here. It is easily accessible from Tekek and is well-known for its proximity to the Marine Park and Monkey Bay. For those seeking a laid-back environment, the village offers many shady spots and hammocks for a quiet afternoon nap.

Tekek

This is the main entry point to Tioman via air and sea. It is also the largest village as well as the administrative centre for the island. Within this village are government offices, a police station and school. Tekek has the longest beach on the island, nearly 3 km in length. Facilities for tourists include numerous chalets, restaurants, souvenir shops, dive operators and moneychanger.

Paya and Genting

Genting is the third largest village after Tekek and Juara. Most resorts in Genting are nestled at hillsides, offering a splendid view of the verdant greenery. The village is equipped with numerous chalets, restaurants, souvenir shops and dive operators. Visitors can also take a 30-minute walk to Paya Village from Genting. Paya is located at the foothill of Mount Kajang, making it the point of descent from the mountain.

Mukut

Located at the southernmost point of the island, Mukut radiates with the grace and charm of a traditional Malay village. Its simple yet quaint
